

Love of Israel

Never before in the history of the nation of Israel, have the Jewish people reached out to Christians for their prayers and friendship!

Hand N' Hand Christians Standing with Israel

For I know the plans I have for you Israel, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future. Jeremiah 29:11

Love of Israel, Shai Baitel and Ruth Sims cordially invite you to attend a special breakfast with Israeli Ambassador to the United States, His Excellency Daniel Ayalon and his wife, Anne, July 19, 2006 at 7:30 – 9:30 am at the Washington Hilton in DC.

Ambassador Ayalon, the highest ranking Israeli diplomat in the U.S., reflects excellence, warmth and sincerity. He will share about the developments in the land, and give concise information about the current Middle East situation and how it affects Israel and the U.S. Anne Ayalon, a dynamic beautiful wife and mother, will share the story of their meeting with a joy that will bless your life!

Co-sponsoring the event with Love of Israel is David and Tracy Ruleman, Vice President of Salem Communications and Director of the Healing Rooms of Washington, D.C. and Susan Michael, U.S. Director of the International Christian Embassy Jerusalem. Special appreciation to our sponsors for this special event Pastor Bob Rodgers, Evangel World Prayer Center and Jackie Yockey, CEO of High Adventure Broadcasting.

Reservations are limited! Call today to reserve your place for this special time together with Ambassador Daniel and Anne Ayalon, and other Jewish friends, as we honor and stand strong with Israel and the Jewish people.

Call Aamie, 1.800.517.4673 (RSVP by July 12, 2006)
Price Per person: $25.00

Please visit www.cufi.org and plan to join Pastor John Hagee in Washington, DC, July 18 & 19 for Christians United for Israel. It is a strategic time to stand together in support of Israel. We'll be there!